Labor Rewarded

Lutheran Chapel To Be Dedicated

Thousands of hours of voluntary labor by the congregation will be rewarded Sunday when the new chapel unit of the First Lutheran Church is dedicated.

The chapel, first unit in an extensive church building program, was built at a cost of approximately $100,000, including furnishings. Donated labor by church members cut the cost considerably.

Next on the agenda is an education building to be constructed south of the present unit, which is located at Flower Ave. and Carson St.

The present building will be converted into a parish hall when the main church is built west of it.

Dr. Konrad Koozman, president of the California District of the American Lutheran Church, will speak at dedication services at 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Sunday. The special dedication service will be held at 3 p.m. with Pastor Paul Baumgartner, of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Los Angeles, as main speaker.

Pastor To Perform Rite
The rite of dedication will be performed by The Rev. Paul Wenske, local pastor, assisted by The Rev. Ralph Herman, assistant pastor of the church. Music for the services will be provided by the choir under the leadership of Professor Lloyd Todd, minister of music.

Paul Loranger, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will speak in behalf of the City of Torrance at the dedication. The services climax plans that began in 1950 when it was decided that the church was no longer large enough to accom-

'Sacrament' Sunday Lesson

The transforming power of true communion with the one God will keynote the services in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon subject is "Sacrament."

The Acts (3:11-13, 16) records that when Peter and John healed the lame man "all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? . . . the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; . . . And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know."

In "Silence and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Through all the disciples experienced, they became more spiritual and understood better what the Master had taught. His resurrection was also their resurrection. It helped them to raise themselves and others from spiritual dullness and blind belief in God into the perception of infinite possibilities." "May the Christians of today take up the more practical import of that career!" (pp. 34, 37)

The Golden Text from John (6:33) affirms: "The bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world."
